FIA launches its Shadow Board

This month FIA launches its first ever Shadow Board. This Board has been established to provide younger people with a voice on the future of the industry. They will work on specific projects that align with the long-term goals of the flexo sector and will feed into the main board.

The Shadow Board members are employees of Diamond and Ruby Partners of FIA and they are keen to help on attracting young people and improving communication channels to both members and partners.

We look forward very much to their valuable input.
